About the Atrium

INTRODUCING MR. & MRS. JOE HANZEK!!

Annabell and Joe Hanzek show true love knows no

came to us, Joe spent 32 years and 2 months as an employee of Bethlehem Steel. They just don't make employees like that anymore,

We have all kinds of characters here at The Atrium, but two of my favorite have always been our resident married couple, Joe and Annabell Hanzek.

If you've ever wanted to see the definition of two people who act like, "an old married couple", look no further.

The Hanzeks were married in 1967, which makes forty-three years for those with bad math skills!

Before they folks.

Annabell was a waitress at Linda and Elliot's Restaurant in Johnstown. Introduced by Joe's ex-sister in law, they spent many a day getting to know each other at the restaurant.

Once they started dating, they spent a lot of their time dancing— primarily the jitterbug and the polka.

When I asked Joe how he proposed to Annabell, in typical Joe fashion ion he answered, "I said, 'We oughtta get married!' and she said, 'Yes'." Annabell just smiled and nodded. No frills, no fuss, just a lot of good cheer.

Once married, the Hanzeks enjoyed traveling, with Atlantic City being their favorite spot. The also adopted a foster child named Richard, whom they love dearly. "He's my boy!" says Joe, "He's a very good boy" added Annabell.

These days, you can find Joe spending time with the poker club and Annabell down playing bingo, or getting her daily 15 peppermints when they're not fussing and laughing at each other— both with equal amounts of love. If you want to see how it's done, stop by for a visit.

ACTIVITY NEWS

What a great month we had in September! The weather was some of the most beautiful I've seen in Johnstown for a very long time. Day after day of sunshine and cloudless skies— and we sure took advantage!

With the help of Gander Mountain, who gave us a wonderful discount, the Windber Sportsman's Club, which provided a venue and staff to assist us, and Allegheny United Cerebral Palsy, who helped us with transportation, we were able to take a group of residents fishing!

The weather was perfect and the fish were biting. All in all we caught 15 fish, with Herb Kist leading the way! We're really looking forward to next year's fishing trip.

Aside from fishing, we also welcomed a new member to our family of performers. Towards the end of the month, Ben Gerideau came in and played some amazing boogie-woogie and ragtime piano while singing us some tremendous tunes for our Harvest Ball. The apple cider and the music were both flowing freely as the residents had a good time getting up and getting down!

In other news, September marked our annual Employee Appreciation picnic. Eric cooked up some great food for us— chicken, pulled BBQ beef, and even a taco bar! Mary picked up some pumpkins for the kids to paint and Denise arranged a visit from Wilda, the magic clown who performed a magic show, did face painting and made balloon animals for everyone.

All in all, it was a fantastic hurrah to summer. We couldn't have asked for a better time, better weather, or better friends as we move into fall. What will next month have in store for us? Stop in and see!
